CHAMBER MUSIC

Newsletter 8 2016

The Spring Festival programme of 3 concerts is taking place on the weekend of the 22/23 October. On Saturday there is a morning concert in the Darlington St. Cuthbert's Church featuring the Darlington String Quartet followed by a finger food lunch. In the evening Sara Macliver (soprano) and 6 string players will perform in the Guildford Grammar School Chapel. This is followed by a glass of wine/tea/coffee and cheese and crackers with another opportunity to meet the performers. On Sunday the concert program includes the Trout Quintet followed by a 3-course lunch (for more information access the website www.darlingtonconcerts.com.au). Season tickets for all 3 concerts are on the move, with about 40 % sold already. On September 1st single concert tickets will be released and when any one concert is sold out season tickets will not be available. If you would like season tickets it would be better to get them sooner rather than later.

Season tickets are $200 or $180 concession and include lunches and refreshments.

Single tickets;

Concert 1	$55 adult or $50 concession
Concert 2	$60 adult or $55 concession
Concert 3	(including lunch) $110 Adult or $105 concession

All tickets can be purchased from:-

- 1 Bendigo Bank, Mundaring, from 2 Cafe in Darlington, or from the Darlington Post Office, (cash or cheque only).
- 2 Bendigo Bank, phone 9295 6411 by credit card only, Tuesday to Friday, between 9am-3pm.
3. In writing to Darlington Concerts, PO Box 194, Darlington, 6070 enclosing your contact details and cheque payment.

N.B. Concert 5 of the winter Series is still to come on 25 September. This will be a fitting climax to a memorable series with seven top performers, enabling us to present the amazing Beethoven Septet as a concert and season finale. The other works are by Gliere and Richard Strauss. Tickets are available from the above outlets and also by going on-line at <http://www.trybooking.com/JPHQ> . Tickets are $40 and $35 concession.

N.B.2 We would like to draw to your notice a performance of another Strauss work, the opera Ariadne auf Naxos. This will be a concert performance by the dynamic and talented Opera Box team, in the Darlington Hall on 13th September. Book on bit.ly/Ariadne Tix, or telephone on 0406 258 450
